Topic: People who help us

The weekly topics:

- Vets
- Post office staff
- Fire people
- Public transport drivers
- Doctors/ Paramedics

Understanding the World

- To understand how people can help others in their job
- Understanding the different roles that people play in our society and how they help our world
- Learning to think about jobs for when we grow older

Literacy

- Using Tricky words in sentences
- Consistently use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces when writing for purpose
- Consistently writing phonetically plausible sentences independently

Phonics

- Learning in their phonics groups

Maths- White Rose Planning

- Learning how to count to 20 and beyond
- Thinking about spatial reasoning
- Representing teen numbers with tens and ones
- Number patterns to help counting on from numbers above zero

Expressive Arts and Design

- We will make self-portraits in the roles of our choice
- We will make drawings and write stories about the people who help us/animals in society

Physical Development

- Rosen class will be practicing their ball skills
- Donaldson class will be learning ball games
- Both classes will be focusing on team work

Personal Social and Emotional Development

- Using emotional literacy programme called DAILLS from Cambridge University to support emotional literacy and circle times
- Working on the 6 pillars of characters which are linked to PSED
- Learn about the adults who we can trust in our lives and how we can get help when we need it
- Use the zones of regulation to explain how we feel

Communication and Language

- Using full sentences
- Using the phrase 'in my opinion'
- Using new vocabulary from in 'Busy Learning' from linked to core texts/topic
- Working towards having 'serve and return' conversations with each other/adults
- Retelling a story
- Respond with relevant questions linked to the topic